LEADERSHIP AND INVOLVEMENT

Game Developers' Association, University of Florida

August 2018 – Present

Founder/President

Gainesville, FL

The Game Developers' Association is an organization centered around game development and creates a community of students at UF interested in creating a game.

- Recruited 20 active members in the first year, generating interest through advertising and announcing in different classes.
- Communicated with two other officers, and the Student Involvement and Activities Center to host meetings centered around game development in the Reitz Union.

The Staff a capella, University of Florida

August 2018 – August 2019

Member

Gainesville, FL

The Staff is an a capella group that performs at many different venues, ranging from local college events to the International Championship of Collegiate A Capella.

- Practiced a multitude of performance pieces every Monday and Thursday for three hours, setting goals for future meetings and showcases that occurred throughout the year.
- Communicated with the Chi Institute, to be able to perform at their location, showcasing our skills and our musical abilities.

Music Composition Club, Eastside High School

August 2017 - June 2018

Founder/President

Gainesville, FL

Served as the founder and president in Music Composition club, a club dedicated to sharing music and learning more about the art of music composition.

- Gave positive and useful feedback to over 25 members who shared their musical compositions with the club, and taught members more about composition, so that they could apply positive feedback for later compositions.
- Hosted multiple composition meetings, where members could have a safe, positive environment to share with others throughout the year.

Eastside High School Marching Band, Eastside High School

August 2016 - June 2018

Section Leader

Gainesville, FL

Served as the section leader of the Front Ensemble, which is a group of percussionists that play at the very front of the field in most marching bands.

- Led a group of 5-8 students during band camp, practices, competitions, and before football games, promoting cohesion, unity, and musical improvement among the group.
- Organized practicing schedules throughout the week, as well as during rehearsals to ensure that we stay focused and motivated through practice.
